Welcome

A very warm welcome is extended to all who have joined us for worship today. Visitors are asked to sign the Visitors Book in the porch and introduce themselves to the Minister or any of the Elders after the service. Anyone who wishes to join the congregation is requested to fill in a yellow card which can be found in the church pews and return it to the Minister.

Available in Porch: February Prayer Diary / Presbyterian Herald

Resuscitation Training Saturday 24th February, 10am - 12.30

Training has been organised for leaders and helpers in basic CPR / use of a Defibrillator / choking / use of an EpiPen. Up to 18 places are available. Please contact Trevor Long asap to reserve your place. All organisations should send at least one representative. This is a very helpful and practical course that anyone will benefit from.

Sunday Evenings in 309

We will be continuing our once per month Sunday Evenings in 309 Cavehill Road. Our next one will be Sunday 11th February at 7pm. We will be looking at 'God's plan for relationships!' through 1 Thessalonians 4:1-12, and having the opportunity to talk together and share some food. The next evening will be our Easter Celebration on Sunday 11th March. On the 11th March we are planning to meet at the gate of Belfast Castle at 4.30pm to go for walk and then go to 309 Cavehill Road for some food and celebrate Easter together. Everyone is welcome to both of these evenings.

'Pride's Crossing' by Tina Howe

Friday 23 & Saturday 24 February 2018 at 8pm

Rosemary Church Halls (Pay at the door)

'Pride's Crossing' tells the story of Mabel Tidings, an extraordinary ninety-year-old woman, and the saga of her life. Mabel is planning to host a Fourth of July Croquet Party for her friends because her granddaughter and great granddaughter are visiting from Paris. She is taken back in memory throughout the play to significant events in her life, including her childhood in Pride's Crossing, Massachusetts, her unhappy marriage, and the day she swam the English Channel.
