4 CORNERS FESTIVAL

Friday 9 February, 7.30pm Venue: Rosemary Church Halls

Readings by Tony Macauley and Philip Orr. Both have written books about the 174 Trust, a Christian Peacemaking Project on the Antrim Road in North Belfast.

Tony Macauley's fourth memoir 'Little House on the Peace Line' was published in 2017 and tells the story of Tony, a young Protestant, moving onto and working in the Catholic New Lodge.

Philip Orr had written 'An Ordinary Kind of Miracle' that told a longer wider and more objective story; A prophetic challenge to anyone attempting to follow Jesus in divided Belfast and indeed beyond.

In this unique event both writers will read from their different books.

Making for an inspirational evening.

Programmes available from the church porch.
